On mostup of Hon. P. H. Leslid, a com-mittee on permanent organization was ap-pointed, one from each county in the district. The counters being casted, it was found that Clinton and Moores had no delargates present. S. H. Bowles, of Barren, stated that he had been audiculated to coast the vote of Clinton and its president of the Barren delegation that of Moores. At this, Hen. W. L. Dulaney objected to the votes of the two counties be-ter cast.

in by Masser, R. S. Bavier and W. L. Dulans; against, and Hon. A. G. Rhea, P. R. Leslie and others in favor of, its adoption, the majority report was adopted.

The basis of representation was declared to be the Democratic vote cast for J. W. Tais in 1800, giving one vote for every one hundred votes and fraction over fifty, which made an aggregate of 117 votes—99 votes belag necessary for election, and the hindmost man to be dropped after the seventh ballot.

General Joseph H. Lewis, of Barren, John E. Raisell, of Warren, and J. S. Golladay, of Legan, having been put in nomination, the first ballot was: Allen, for Raisell, 7: Barren, for Lewis, 18; Chinden, for Lewis, 2; Camberland, for Haisell, 6: Hart, for Lewis, 3; Longas, for Golladay, 19; Meicalir, for Lewis, 6; Mouroe, 10: Clevis, 4; Russell, 4: for Golladay, 19; Warren, for Haisell, 19: Total—Lewis, 49; Halsell, 38; Simpson, tor Lewis, 4; Russell, 4: for Golladay, 22: Fity-nine necessary to an election.

At the close of the third ballot Cot R. S. Bevier, of Legan, made an eloquent appeal to the Convention in bahalf of debileday, defending his position before the Convention. The vote was mechanged until the fourth ballot, when W. L. Daisney with there we have a given to Lewis, and four votes of Simpson, alored the Convention.

At the fifth ballot the vote of Logan was given to Lewis, and four votes of Simpson, alored the Convention.

On being loudly called upon, he responded in the most appropriate terms. He took it for granted that Congress, having rehaved his disabilities, would allow him to take has seat; and selved the Democratic party at the coming election not to seek to prevent the negroes voting, but allow all who were so included to do so freely. He is a standard-bearer that will poll the largest Democratic ever polled in this district.

No reasonable man of either party can be offended if he finds the proceedings of the Radical leaders in Congress stigmatized as intolerably insolent and corrupt. Their efforts now will be directed to the control of the negro vote and the proceedings of their political advergaries. They ratified the Fifteenth amendment by fraud; and the Republican organization by the sheer force of muscle, persistence and effrontery ought to be sufficiently odious, for it is sufficiently obvious, to coasign the whole hody to the distrust of these of the people who have no interest to carry out in supporting the demands of a huddle of pretentious party managers. authority on the subject of courts-markal cites several cases which were finally subhighest and the final authority for the ad-judication of questions of military law, in which it was decided that there was noth-ing in the articles of war to except the sen-tence of cashiering from the general power of the President to militare the sentence constitutional powers, the authority to of-fer a conditional pardon to officers who had been cashiered. What then is to prevent the President from pardoning General Powers on the condition that he will submit to another trial of his case? It is true the 87th article of war declares General WIRT, in an elaborate and con centeral wisk, in an essource and conclusive opinion on the meaning of that article of war, decided that article 87 in designed for the benefit of the party accused, not for his prejudice. Mr. Winr said: "The President of the United States has the rower to order a new trial for the has the power to order a new trial for the benefit of the prisoner," and, he added, "the plea (of former trial) is his privilege, which he may either use or waive, at his pleasure."

General PORTER has been cashiered.

For costipition and billousness they are a certain riunely. By their action they both review and refusal the overloaded system. Nor is this all. There is nothing in their composition which is not vegetable. They are potent for good among the strong and robust. They are the delicate and weakly. The liver, the great secretise the one aperson of hazalive needed by the delicate and weakly. The liver, the great secretive gland of the body, determines both the punity of the blood and the condition of the howels. These pills econtain herbs, gums, roots, and barks, erray one of which is cale-braied as an antibilious remedy, and which, if there he a single ascertained fact in medicine, constitute the most genial and perfectly satisfactory purgative yet discovered. They do not may any injure. They clean out the departed and villated secretions of the alimentary exast. They simulate and persuade the liver. They too the stometh, and through it the brain and nerver. They do not irritate—they restore. In all the Phlegmania, Rheumatian, Eryaipelas, Veritgo, Districas, Inflammation of the Brain, Liver, Kidneys, and Badder, and in every other affection in which is purgative is dealerable, these pills are beyond all paradventures a true passees. Hence use none other, as they can do you so harm, and their effects are invariably beneficial.
